

Three Years of Graduate Diploma in Information Technology Management

Develop a critical understanding of management in the context of Computing Systems and IT Development. After completion of this course you will know the theoretical understanding of concepts and an overview of IT combined with business. It will equip you to find employment with management prospects in IT industry or to continue your professional or academic studies in a related area.

Program Details

Objective of the program

Graduate Diploma in Information Technology Management aims to help students to develop a critical understanding of management in the context of general business. It offers a strong, sector-related emphasis on practical skills development alongside the development of requisite knowledge and understanding. This qualification prepares to fit in administrations, areas of computer science and computer technology for business.

Admission requirements

- A High School Certificate or Diploma from an approved University, or equivalent qualification.
- IELTS: With at least 5.0 in each of the four components.

Credit System: European Credit Transfer System

Program Structure:

The Program is studied full time and operates on a 10 credit modular structure which comprises of 300 study hours per subject (Inc. lecture, student contact, private study and assessment) over three years.

Assessment method

All learning outcomes should be addressed either through assignment based or examination method.

Curriculum

	SUBJECT	ECTS
YEAR 1	Computer Systems	10
	Business Skills for e-Commerce	10
	Management in Information Technology	10
	Systems Analysis and Design	10
	Digital Media in Art and Design	10
	2D, 3D and Time-based Digital Applications	10
YEAR 2	Website Design	10
	Networking Infrastructure	10
	Distributed Software Applications	10
	Internet Server Management	10
	Web Applications Development	10
	Data Structures and Algorithms	10

YEAR 3	Computer Systems Architecture	10
	IT Virtualisation	10
	Work-based Experience	10
	Web Server Scripting	10
	Local Area Networking Technologies	10
	Financial Decision making for Managers	10
In order to successfully complete the program the student shall achieve a total of 180 ECTS points.		Total:180

Course details are subject to change